2016 Yolo County General Election Results Now Final

(Woodland, CA) –Yolo County Registrar of Voters Jesse Salinas is pleased to announce that the results of the November 2016 General Election are now official! 84,685 ballots were cast from a pool of 111,226 officially registered voters, making the turnout just over 76%, the highest since 2004!

Certified results, including precinct maps can be found at <http://www.yoloelections.org/returns/>. “Yolo County had an amazing turnout, and I couldn’t be more proud of our residents for making their voices heard during this important election,” noted Salinas. “Moving forward, my priorities include increased transparency and finding new and effective ways to reach our communities.”

Aside from the Elections website Yolo residents can also interact with A.C.E. through their Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/YoloACE>.
