Bill of Rights Display Coming to the West Sacramento Branch in January

(Woodland, CA) – All are welcome to check out a pop-up display commemorating the 225th anniversary of the Bill of Rights from January 3 to February 28 at the Arthur F. Turner Community Library, located at 1212 Merkley Avenue in West Sacramento. The display will showcase photographs and info graphics on the history of the first ten amendments added to the U.S. Constitution in 1791, while encouraging communities to engage and learn more about the Bill of Rights.

The Bill of Rights display is a collaboration between the North Dakota Humanities Council and the National Archives and Records Administration. The Yolo County Library supports self-directed learning and the importance of history to our communities and residents.
