Construction Job Talk on January 23

(West Sacramento, CA) – The Yolo County Health & Human Services Agency and Northern California Construction Training (NCCT) are partnering to present a free Construction Job Talk on January 23. The Talk will provide participants with an overview of the NCCT program, which is designed to help train and secure employment for Yolo County residents interested in careers in the construction trades.

The construction industry is currently in need of qualified employees, offering apprenticeship positions in the industry typically ranging from $14 to $23 per hour. The partnership between NCCT and the Yolo County Health & Human Services Agency will offer free training and paid apprenticeships to Yolo County residents.

Yolo County residents interested in this free opportunity to advance a career in the construction trades are encouraged to attend the job talk on Monday, January 23 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the Health & Human Services Agency in West Sacramento, located at 500-A Jefferson Boulevard.
