Davis Branch Library Hosts Early Childhood Preschool Fair on February 18

(Woodland, CA) – Are you looking for a preschool provider in Davis but aren't sure where to start or what information you need? Come to the second annual Early Childhood Preschool Fair on February 18 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at the Veterans Memorial Center at 203 E. 14th Street in Davis.

This free event is hosted by Yolo County's Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library and includes the following local service agencies and programs: City of Davis, Davis Joint Unified School District, Yolo County Children's Alliance, Davis Waldorf School, Help Me Grow, Children's Home Society of California, UC Davis and more.

All are welcome to attend this free family friendly event and discover early childhood resources and support services in Davis for children ages 0-5. Attendees will be able to speak with local childcare providers, get information on different preschool programs and low-income options in the community, learn about quality preschool and early literacy kits, discover resources for families with special needs, and learn what questions to ask when meeting potential providers.

The Yolo County Library supports the early education and growth of children and connects families with service agencies and programs in the community. This event is sponsored by the Yolo County Library and the Friends of the Davis Public Library.
