MHSA Planning Activities and Timeline

Current Community Needs

3

Service Access and Participation

- Identifying and linking individuals and families with mental health needs to the appropriate services remains challenging despite service availability.

Collaboration

- Many consumers are involved with other public and service agencies, making it confusing for consumers and other professionals. This is especially pronounced for people transitioning out of jail and/or hospital.

Crisis

- The crisis intervention program is a great asset to the community with a need to continue to move towards crisis prevention.
