Yolo County Library Hosts Cultural Communication Workshop

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Library’s adult and family literacy program, Yolo Reads, is hosting a free workshop for community members and residents who are interested in cultural communication and literacy. The workshop will be held on Thursday, March 30 from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis.

Librarian Touger Vang, a specialist in serving immigrant and refugee communities, will lead this workshop that discusses how cultural understanding can be used to increase student learning. In addition to tutors and educators, those interested in increasing their ability to have conversations with immigrants and refugees are welcome to attend.

The Yolo County Library supports collaboration and communication throughout the county and provides opportunities for everyone to engage in learning and literacy. For more information about the Yolo County Library, visit: www.yolocountylibrary.org or connect with the library on Facebook at: www.facebook.com/yolocountylibrary.org.
