

Decorative Rocks for Grinder Pump Stations

“What can I use to cover up the grinder pump lid in my yard?”

Homeowners have asked for years what they can do to cover up the “eyesore” in their yards. Service technicians still need access. An easy solution? A decorative rock.

Lightweight but durable, this decorative rock is a fast, easy and affordable way to disguise a grinder pump station.

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

- Attractive, natural contours and colors allow the rock to blend in with almost any landscape design
- Molded polyethylene will not fade or crack
- Built-in vents allow air circulation
- Available in four colors and two sizes (36” x 36” x 9” and 34” x 32” x 15”)
- Anchor stakes keep the rock in place, but remove easily for service

*Easily disguise
a grinder pump with a decorative rock.*

Many homeowners ask how they can cover up their grinder pump lids. E/One's decorative rocks hide the lids, but still provide easy access for service.
