Library Receives Funds for African American Nonfiction

(Woodland, CA) – The Jerrold B. Whitney/Clayton Pinkerton Fund, administered through the Sacramento Region Community Foundation, has generously awarded the Yolo County Library $750 to increase the library’s holdings in the African American non-fiction genre. These additional materials will be housed in the Arthur F. Turner Community Library in West Sacramento where it will increase the available resources about African Americans, as well as works authored by African Americans.

“The contribution from the Jerrold B. Whitney/Clayton Pinkerton Fund will allow us to provide more materials that meet the diverse information needs of the West Sacramento community and Yolo County in general,” said Arthur F. Turner Community Librarian and Regional Manager Dana Christy.

For further details or assistance accessing the new collection, please contact the Arthur F. Turner Community Library at (916) 375-6465.
