Promote Literacy in Yolo County

(Woodland, CA) –Help make a difference in adult literacy by serving as a volunteer for Yolo County Library’s Yolo Reads program, a free literacy program serving all of Yolo County. Volunteers will provide free confidential support and instruction to English-speaking adult learners. Those interested should attend the next volunteer orientation at the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis, on Monday July 24, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

No experience is necessary to volunteer and the hours are flexible. Volunteers will receive training and materials from the Yolo Reads program to confidently support their adult learner. Residents can also support Yolo Reads by spreading the word to those who will benefit from participating in this program.

Learners receive one-on-one support from volunteer tutors, free materials, free computer use, and access to the Yolo County Library collections.

Join the Yolo Reads program and learn how you can make a difference in someone’s life. The Yolo County Library supports the learning and personal development of communities and residents and provides access to information for all. For more information on the Yolo Reads program, call (530) 666-8019 or email libraryvolunteer@yolocounty.org.
