Chinese Film Series Comes to Davis Library

(Woodland, CA) – Yolo County Library is pleased to host a Chinese film screening series occurring this fall. All films will be in Chinese with English subtitles and screened on the second Wednesday of each month at 6:00 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis. Community members are encouraged to join the screenings and discussion that follows. Popcorn and tea will be provided.

All are welcome to attend the following 6:00 p.m. film screenings:

- September 13 “When a Peking Family Meets Aupair [sic]”
- October 11 “Walking to School”
- November 8 “A Time in Quchi”
- December 13 “Mark of Youth”
- January 10 “Orz Boyz”
- February 14 “My Old Classmate”

“Library staff are excited to screen Chinese language films,” says Adult Services Librarian Joan Tuss. “We anticipate making this an annual event and look forward to more programs supporting the Chinese community.”

Yolo County Library would like to thank the following sponsors for making this community engagement event possible: TECO (Taipei Economic and Cultural Office), Taiwan Cinema Toolkit, the Chinese Consulate of San Francisco, and the Friends of the Davis Public Library.

This event is free and no reservations are required. The Yolo County Library promotes enriching and diverse programming and values the diversity in Yolo County and the country.
