STUDENTS, PROVIDERS, AND COMMUNITY
STAKEHOLDERS ARE INVITED !

You are cordially invited to attend the grand opening of the

STAY Well Center

Support for Transition Age Youth Wellness Center

The STAY Well Center, located at Woodland Community College, is an exciting new partnership between Yolo County Health and Human Services and WCC to provide enrolled students and transition age youth (16-25 years old) support and resources to address mental health, personal, and/or academic challenges. The wellness center is designed to enhance connectivity with peers and mentors, reduce stress and increase student persistence and success rates at WCC.

Wednesday, December 6, 2017
12:00 pm - 2:00 pm
