Celebrate Día de los Niños/Día de los Libros at the Yolo County Library

(Woodland, CA) – Children and their families are invited to join the Yolo County Library and celebrate Día de los Niños/Día de los Libros.

Día de los Niños/ Día de los Libros celebrates children—who represent the hopes and dreams of every community. The celebration emphasizes the importance of literacy for children from all backgrounds by connecting children and their families to diverse books, languages, and cultures. Libraries and community organizations come together for a celebration aimed to inspire and empower a new generation of achievers.

All are welcome to participate in this FREE celebration on the following days:

- March 30 at 1:30 p.m. Yolo Branch Library at Cache Creek High School, 14320 2nd Street
- April 10 at 5:30 p.m. South Davis Montgomery Library, 1441 Danbury Street
- April 14 at 11:00 a.m. Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, 315 E. 14th Street
- April 17 at 6:00 p.m. Knights Landing Branch Library, 42351 Third Street
- April 18 at 6:00 p.m. Clarksburg Branch Library, 52915 Netherlands Avenue
- April 19 at 6:00 p.m. Esparto Regional Library, 17065 Yolo Avenue
- April 26 at 6:00 p.m. Winters Community Library, 708 Railroad Avenue
- April 28 at 2:00 p.m. Arthur F. Turner Community Library, 1212 Merkley Avenue

Children who attend these events will receive a free book and can participate in educational activities, watch a special performance, and listen to a story time program. Parents and caregivers will find helpful local resources from community organizations.

No reservations are required and all programs are free to attend. Programs are sponsored and supported by Yolo County's Friends of the Library groups, donations from the community, the American Library Association, the Association for Library Service to Children, First 5 Yolo, and the Yolo County Library.
