Election Night Mapping Errors

Woodland, CA – For the 2018 Primary Election, the Yolo County Election office piloted a new interactive election night reporting map to display results. We have discovered there was an error on the map for how results were reported in vote-by-mail precincts within Yolo County. We have corrected that error and the map now shows the correct map election results as of 3:13 a.m., June 6, 2018. The results shown in table format on the Yolo County Elections website www.yoloelections.org are correct and have not changed as they do not contain errors. We will update the map as new results are reported. If you have any questions contact the Elections Office at (530) 666-8133.
