

WHAT WE DO

Yolo County Child Support Services assists parents to establish paternity and child support orders and enforce child and medical support orders. We will assist to modify child support orders when appropriate. We collect from and distribute child support to parents as well as provide a full accounting of all child support owed, paid and received. Audits can be provided upon request.

If needed, we can provide genetic testing to determine paternity or locate services to find parents for the purposes of child support. Yolo County Child Support Services is one of 49 local child support agencies (LCSAs) working with the California Department of Child Support Services to serve the needs of families.

WHO WE SERVE

Our services are available to all parents or legal guardians who would like assistance in obtaining or enforcing a child support order, regardless of income.
