Privacy Act Statement

Authority. The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose. Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses. During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental, or authorized nongovernmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification₁ that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- You must be provided, and acknowledge receipt of, an adequate Privacy Act Statement when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement should explain the authority for collecting your information and how your information will be used, retained, and shared.
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the employment, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record. 3

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council. 4

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.) You can find additional information on the FBI website at https://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN (EMT) CERTIFICATION BACKGROUND CHECK INFORMATION

Fingerprinting Requirement

In order to be a certified EMT in Yolo County, you must have a background check, by being fingerprinted through the California Department of Justice (DOJ), and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). The DOJ has very strict security rules, and fingerprints that are taken for another agency and/or reason cannot be shared. Thus all new EMT's or EMT's with a lapse in certification of twelve (12) months or more must get a set of fingerprints taken specifically for YEMSA.

Fingerprinting is done electronically, through a process called Live Scan. YEMSA does NOT perform Live Scan because special equipment is required. Please see a list of agencies on our website and have them perform the fingerprinting process. www.yemsa.org

Live Scan Form

A Live Scan form should be printed from our website at www.yemsa.org. You will need two (2) copies of this Live Scan formed printed out; one (1) for the Live Scan Agency, and one (1) for yourself. The forms must be completed prior to arriving for your Live Scan appointment. Please remember you will need a copy of your completed live scan form electronically for your YEMSA EMT online application.

Fingerprint Fees

Fees for the background check will be paid for by the applicant at the time of fingerprinting to the fingerprinting agency. Applicants should confirm the required method of payment and amount prior to arrival at the Live Scan location. Also, remember to bring a valid form of identification (ID) – a California Driver's License (CDL) is best, but a military ID, passport, or California State ID card will also be accepted.

Privacy

Privacy and confidentiality of criminal history record information is the responsibility of the Emergency Medical Service (EMS) Agency. Only preauthorized EMS Agency staff is permitted to review background information. All submitted material will be held in strict confidence.

If You Have a Conviction History

Conviction of a crime does not necessarily mean that an applicant will be denied certification or recertification. The appropriate EMS staff, along with the county legal department, if appropriate, will review each individual case where the applicant has a criminal conviction. Decisions will be based on applicable state statutes and regulations, and a careful review of documentation. Disciplinary actions can include: denial, revocation, suspension and/or probation. If you are informed of a disciplinary action based on your criminal history and you feel that it is not in line with the statutes and regulations, you have the right to appeal the decision. Applicants with a criminal conviction or who are involved in an active prosecution can expect a delay in the processing of their application. In most cases, a signed and dated letter from you explaining the case/conviction(s) and copies of court documents are required to process your application.

FBI Notice

FBI Inquiries - If an applicant believes his/her information is incorrect or incomplete in any respect, and wishes changes, corrections or updating of the alleged deficiency, he/she should make a written inquiry directly to the agency which contributed the questioned information. The subject of a record may also direct his/her challenge as to the accuracy or completeness of any entry on his/her record to the FBI, Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division, ATTN: SCU, Mod. D-2, 1000 Custer Hollow Road, Clarksburg, WV 26306. The FBI will then forward the challenge to the agency which submitted the data requesting that agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon the receipt of an official communication directly from the agency which contributed the original information, the FBI CJIS Division will make any changes necessary in accordance with the information supplied by that agency.

Application Submission

Applicants must submit an electronic copy of their completed Live Scan form with their YEMSA EMT online application.

Certifications will be issued after review of the application, associated documentation, results of the background check and receipt of the EMT certification fees.
