September 25th is National Voter Registration Day

Woodland, CA – Tuesday September 25th is National Voter Registration Day. This National Holiday was first observed in 2012 and helps to register thousands of voters across the country. In 2016, over 750,000 voters used National Voter Registration Day to register to vote before the election, according to their website.

Yolo County currently has 109,103 registered voters. Anyone who is over 18, a United States citizen, and not in prison or on parole for a felony can register to vote. Those 16 and older can pre-register, and their registration will become active when they turn 18. Anyone who has moved, changed their name, or wishes to change their party preference will need to update their voter registration. Voters can register online at registertovote.ca.gov or at the Yolo County Elections Office - which is located in Woodland at 625 Court Street, Room B-05.
