YOLO COUNTY MENTORING PROGRAM Frequently Asked Questions

- 1) Can a mentor take on more than one mentee?
The number of mentees a mentor can take on is dependent on the mentor and their workload. It is up to the mentor to decide how many mentees they can accommodate.
- 2) What do I do if the mentor/mentee relationship is not working?
Please contact mentor@yolocounty.org with any concerns.
- 3) What if a mentee applies but does not have clearly defined goals?
Clearly defining goals is a required for the Mentoring Program. If you are having difficulties identifying your goals please contact mentor@yolocounty.org.
- 4) What if my mentor does not meet the qualifications to become a mentor?
Please contact mentor@yolocounty.org with any concerns.
- 5) If I go through the Mentoring Program and graduate can I go through the program again with a different mentor?
After completing the Mentoring Program you are welcome to apply again with your supervisor's approval.
- 6) Will the Mentoring Program team provide feedback to mentor/mentees' supervisors regarding program attendance and progress?
Attendance will be tracked in the Meeting Log Worksheets but no other details will be shared.
- 7) Can my direct supervisor be my mentor?
Under the Mentoring Program direct supervisors are eligible to be mentors, with manager approval.
