Programs at the Winters Community Library in September

(Woodland, CA) – Begin the school year with these programs held during the month of September at Yolo County's Winters Community Library, located at 708 Railroad Avenue in Winters:

- September is Literacy and Library Card Sign-Up Month. Explore new worlds by signing up for a card and checking out all we have to offer, including, books, DVDs, special programs and much more!
- New! Winters Community Library Teaching Garden. Enjoy reading in a peaceful outdoor setting surrounded by native plants and flowers. Sponsored by the Winters Friends of the Library, UC Master Gardener Program, and the City of Winters. Open hours are posted in ongoing programs.
- September 7: Growing Fall and Winter Vegetables, 9:30 a.m. Get tips from UC Master Gardeners on which varieties work best in our climate and how to prolong your harvest. This workshop will be held in the new Winters Community Library Teaching Garden.
- September 15 to October 15: Latinx Heritage Month. Learn about the histories, cultures and contributions of Americans whose ancestors came from Spain, Mexico, the Caribbean and Central and South America with our bibliography and display.
- September 22-28: Banned Books Week. Censorship leaves us in the dark. Keep the light on! Celebrate free expression by reading one of the banned or challenged books in our display.

The following ongoing programs continue in September:
