Black Mental Health Podcast

The black mental health podcast is dedicated to understanding and unraveling the mental issues in the African American community. With the stigma of therapy being a "white people thing" coupled with the cost of therapy, black people are left to deal with mental health issues on their own. The black mental health podcast is here not as a replacement to therapy but as an alternative.

California Peer-Run Warm Line Here for you 24/7 (855) 845-7415

The Warm Line aims to be a highly accessible, low threshold mental health resource that people can use to seek support before they've reached the crisis point, in the hope that support now will prevent crisis later.

People of Color and the California Peer-Run Warm Line are programs of the Mental Health Association in San Francisco

DRK Beauty

DRK Beauty is a digital community whose mission is to celebrate women of color in all their diversity. <https://thisisdrkbeauty.com/>

The Movement Presents: Real Men Talk

Real Men Talk is a reoccurring event focusing on brotherhood, mental health, and the overall well-being of the men in our community. This event will give men an opportunity to speak freely and openly in an exclusive male setting. See the Sol Collective Facebook events page at: <https://www.facebook.com/SolCollective/events/>

Support Guide - Mental Health in the African American Community

African Americans are strong people and can recover from mental health challenges. With access to the right tools and treatment, between 70% and 90% of all individuals say they have reduced symptoms and improved quality of life.
