3. Consent April Agenda and March Minutes

No items voted on at this time. These action items will be moved to the May agenda

DISCUSSION: Christine Crum – requested an edit for the March minutes. Under regular agenda items (c) Budget 2021/2022 – Ramin Yazdani add the following:

Please see attached copy of budget which includes rate increases which will be effective July 1, 2021.

4. Regular Agenda

- a) Chair and Vice Chair Selection – moved to May WAC meeting.
- b) SB 1383 Food Rescue update – Marissa Juhler
Yolo County has all five jurisdictions and the three consultants continuing to work on SB 1383. We've received a proposal from the Yolo Food Bank on their cost to serve the 23 new tier one generators. The consultants are reviewing all of the financials to backup this request for funding.

c) IWM Plan update – Marisa Juhler

Yolo County and cities have decided to go with the short version of the five year CIWMP revision. The first draft is about 99.99% completed with the updated data. We are currently slated to bring this to WAC in May for review and vote on this matter in June.

5. Member Updates

Yolo County – Ramin Yazdani

- The compost facility construction started in March. The free composting program is very popular with the public.

Davis – Richard Tsai

- The City of Davis is hosting a paper shredding event, April 24 for the residents of Davis.

West Sacramento – Susan Strand

- West Sacramento is focusing on preparing for SB 1383 compliance, specifically the requirements for organic recycle, edible food recovery and adoption of a recycling ordinance.

Winters – Kristine DeGuerre

- No updates given

Woodland – Rosie Ledesma

- Woodland Police Department is participating in the national pharmaceutical take back event this Saturday, April 24th.
- Bulky Waste coupons will be going out in a couple of weeks for June.
