Yolo County Offers Job Seekers Opportunity to Connect with Over Thirty State of California Departments

(Woodland, CA) – YoloWorks!, Yolo County Health and Human Services Agency and the Yolo County Workforce Innovation Board, in partnership with the California Department of Human Resources and Sacramento Employment and Training Agency, are hosting an Accounting Pathways Virtual Career Fair on July 15 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. This career fair provides job seekers the opportunity to connect with over 30 State of California departments that are actively looking to fill hundreds of financial job openings throughout the state

Attendees will gain access to live virtual booths where they can ask questions directly to departments. Interested parties can register for the job fair at <https://tinyurl.com/bvfmvpw7> or by visiting the YoloWorks! webpage. Additionally, the State of California will be offering an hour-long How to Begin Your Finance Career seminar at 10 a.m. during the virtual career fair.

Participating departments are recruiting job seekers for the following positions: Accounting; Taxes; Auditing; Budgets; Insurance; Real Estate and Grants.

For more information, please contact Erica Johnson, HHSA Program Coordinator at erica.johnson@yolocounty.org or call/text (530) 631-2289.
