Dear Members, Denying the Yolo County Board of Supervisors of a majority Latino district is a direct attack on Latino political representation in our community. As one of the initial coordinators of Yolo County's COVID-19 response, I saw first hand how Latino political representation in District 5 made our pandemic response more inclusive and equitable. Please do not weaken the rural Latino community's power to organize together. Please support Maps 4, 4A, or the Concilio proposal.
