The meeting began at 6:30 p.m. with E. Sabatini providing welcoming remarks and introducing staff members in attendance.

H. Tschudin then provided a presentation on the status and latest information of the Teichert Shifler Mining and Reclamation Project. This presentation may be viewed at www.yolonaturalresources.org.

After the presentation, E. Sabatini opened the workshop up for comments and questions from the public. The following individuals spoke during this period:

- Michael Nevis
- Pam

- Anne Liu
- James Burau
- Till Angermann
- Max Stevenson

Comments and questions included the following topics:

- Unsafe driving practices of gravel trucks
- Annual aggregate material demand in region
- Gravel trucks not staying on approved haul routes
- Ecosystem balance and proximity to Nature Preserve
- Drought conditions and groundwater recharge
- Groundwater filtration concerns
- Project's impacts on air quality and noise
- Quality of reclaimed agricultural fields
- Action of YCFCWCD Board of Directors regarding Moore Canal

During the Q&A portion of the workshop, E. Sabatini provided the Natural Resources webpage address, phone number, and email address to the attendees on a slide, and in the chat box on the Zoom webinar.

E. Sabatini concluded the workshop by reminding attendees of the public hearing dates and inviting participation.

The workshop ended at 7:35 p.m.
