SUPERVISOR UPDATES

New Library coming to Yolo, CA.

On Tuesday, September 14th, Yolo County Supervisors, along with staff and community members attended the ground breaking ceremony. For more than 100 years, the Yolo Library had served the Yolo, Zamora, and Dunnigan region.

The new library will have a large community room, free Wi-Fi, public computers, copier/printer, and other vital educational services.

Thanks to every community member and stakeholder who played a role. Especially the friends of the Yolo Branch of Yolo, Capital campaign committee, Assemblymember Member Cecilia Aguiar-Curry, and my fellow colleagues on the Yolo Board of Supervisors.

Indian Health Service Facility

On Friday, September 17th, Supervisor Barajas toured the Indian Health Services facility located outside of Davis near DQ University. The new service facility is federally funded with the purpose of elevating the physical, mental, social, and spiritual health of young American Indians and Alaska Natives.

While the facility has delayed its grand opening due to COVID, Supervisor Barajas looks forward to collaborating and creating a healthy community for participants.
