SUPERVISOR UPDATES

Woodland's Mojo Lounge & Bar

“Any action attempting to use force to incite mayhem is reprehensible and against the values of our country,” Barajas stated. “Law enforcement and the District Attorney’s Office, with due process, should continue to investigate and prosecute anyone who went beyond the confines of the law. I support civil, not unlawful discourse.” Supervisor, Angel Barajas

Reclamation District 108 – 150th Anniversary

On Wednesday, June 29th, Supervisor Barajas presented Reclamation District 108 with a resolution commemorating the 150th anniversary of its formation.

On October 4, 1870, landowners submitted a petition to the Colusa and Yolo County Boards of Supervisors authorizing the formation of a new Reclamation District and assigned it the number 108. The Reclamation District Law of 1868 established the District to build levees and "reclaim" land subject to periodic overflow from neighboring rivers and water bodies.

The Reclamation District No. 108 is located along the western edge of the Sacramento River and supplies water to nearly 48,000 acres of farmland in southern Colusa County and northern Yolo County.

Thank you Reclamation District 108 for years of dedication!

Yolo County Farmworker Program

Agricultural Worker Team Goals & Objectives

Food Security	• Create a food benefit program for undocumented children, families, and individuals (like CalFRESH)
Housing	• Create a 'pipeline' for affordable housing for the both temporary & permanent housing needs
Medical	• Provide access to services, including CMSP for undocumented individuals
Education	• Provide link to education opportunities in the K-12, Adult Ed, Community College & Vocational training systems.
Immigration	• Assist with immigration issues by referring to Partner with California Human Development (CHD) to use their immigration attorney for assistance.
Legal Support	• 6) Yolo County Public Defender for justice involved: • 5A) Legal issues – assist with legal issues by referring to Legal Aid or Public Defender for assistance
Employment Assistance	• Assist with finding employment by referring to HSEA Employment Services, CHD, Community College for employment guidance
Transportation	•  Need to identify specific transportation goals by meeting with community and partners. **

At the June 28 BOS meeting, a specific agricultural worker workplan and a recommended budget of $246,000 was presented to the Board of Supervisors.

The historic formation of the Farmworker Ad Hoc highlighted the need for a full-time ag coordinator position (which the County is currently accepting applications for), a .5 FTE staff for Health Care Services, along with other dedicated staff who will serve Farm workers in the capacity of: housing, food security, medical, education, immigration, legal support, employment assistance and legal support.

We are committed to improving the lives of farmworkers in Yolo County, and as a result, we hope that other agricultural counties will follow in Yolo County's footsteps.

LOCAL REPORTING

On Tuesday, June 21st, Yolo County Supervisors Angel Barajas and Don Saylor sent Knights Landing youth to free swimming lessons.

The kids boarded a bus at the Family Resource Center in Knights Landing, courtesy of the Yolo County Transportation District, and were transported to Davis for swimming lessons.

SwimAmerica provided the lessons, which were made possible by a collaboration between Barajas and Saylor, Davis Sunrise Rotary, Yolo County Transportation District, and community resident Maria Martinez. Swimming lessons were previously put on hold for two years due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"We are incredibly excited to provide free swim lessons for the youth of Knights Landing," Barajas said. "Not only do swim lessons help save lives, but they provide physical and social development for our youth." This is an activity we hope to continue every summer.
