(Woodland, CA) – Children and their families are invited to join the Yolo County Library in celebrating Día de los Niños/Día de los Libros in April.

Many nations throughout the world celebrate Día de los Niños in the spring to honor and celebrate children who represent the hopes and dreams of every community. Día de los Niños/Día de los Libros emphasizes the importance of literacy for children from all backgrounds while encouraging libraries and community organizations to inspire and empower new generations of achievers. The event also connects children and their families to diverse books, languages and cultures.

“Our Día celebration across the county will be fun and engaging, and the free books will help add to or create home libraries – an important part of encouraging literacy,” said newly appointed County Librarian and Chief Archivist Diana Lopez. “We hope you will join us in the festivities!”

No reservations are required and all programs are free to attend. Programs are sponsored and supported by Yolo County’s Friends of the Library groups and the Yolo County Library Foundation.
