Yolo County Seeks Applications for Community Services Action Board

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Board of Supervisors is seeking applications for openings on its Community Services Action Board.

The Community Services Action Board's mission is to combat poverty by promoting the health, safety, stability and self-sufficiency of low-income persons residing in Yolo County. The board is advisory to the Board of Supervisors with the following primary functions:

- Convening bi-monthly meetings to evaluate local progress towards combating poverty in Yolo County
- Conducting a biannual community needs assessment to identify critical gaps in Yolo County's social service system
- Overseeing the provision of services using Community Services Block Grant funds by reviewing project proposals and making recommendations to the Board of Supervisors on expenditures
- Monitoring the performance of Community Services Block Grant-funded programs by examining outcome reports and conducting annual site visits
- Serving as advocates for Yolo County residents living in poverty

The Community Services Action Board currently has the following vacancies:

- Representatives of the low-income population (may be low-income persons or persons working for an organization serving the low-income population)
- Representative for District 4 - Supervisorial Districts found at www.YoloCounty.org (go to: Government > Board of Supervisors)
- Representatives of community-based organizations

The Community Services Action Board meets in-person on the second Tuesday of every other month from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. Those interested in serving may complete an application found at www.YoloCounty.org (go to: Government > Advisory Bodies). For more information on the Community Services Action Board, email Anisa Vallejo at: Anisa.Vallejo@yolocounty.org.
