NO CHARGES FOR DAVIS MOTHER

(Woodland, CA) – December 17, 2008 – On November 21, 2008, a Davis Mother dropped her son off at a hospital in Kimball, Nebraska. The Mother was taking advantage of the Nebraska “Safe Haven Law” by dropping her son off prior to the law being changed in Nebraska. After reviewing a thorough investigation which was conducted by the Davis Police Department, this office finds that there is insufficient evidence present to justify filing criminal charges against the Mother. Of particular note, the investigation revealed that no force was used in getting the son from California to Nebraska. In addition, due to the son’s age, certain California laws applicable to abandonment do not apply.
