6. Board Vacancies- Anisa Vallejo

- There are currently five vacancies of fifteen total positions- District 4 Representative, two Low-Income Representatives, and two Community-Based Organization Representatives.
- Vacancies are reported to CSD and recruitments for positions are advertised in the newspaper and through notice from the Clerk of the Board.
- Please refer individuals who might qualify and be interested in participating.
- Anisa Vallejo will be the primary contact for any applicants who apply.
- It is unknown at this time if there are any applications for positions currently pending.

7. CSBG Funding Summary- Anisa Vallejo

- Review CSBG Funding Summary for CY2020 and CY2021, including discretionary funds and CSBG CARES funds.

8. CSBG Performance Measure Report- Q4- Rachel Ladd

- Davis Community Meals and Housing's Performance Measure Report for quarter 4 was presented (attached).
- Yolo Wayfarer Center provided updated numbers for PM 3.3 as requested (Q1-Q4), to count only individuals who increased their income during the reporting period.
 - Follow-up question: Are the clients reported as increasing their income those who received GA/benefits, or did they have other sources of income such as employment?
 - Follow-up question: Are these clients eligible for the stimulus checks, and if they do receive them, is that counted as an increase in income?

9. Community Action Plan Update- Anisa Vallejo

- CAP timeline was reviewed and will be sent out to board members along with the press release.

10. Other Yolo County Funding- Ian Evans

- Review of ESG-CV Round 2 awarded projects, including geographic and jurisdictional breakdown of funds.
- Update on Emergency Rental Assistance program which has been extended through June 2021. Undocumented individuals and families are eligible to receive assistance from this program. There are income restrictions for those eligible to receive assistance. Assistance is being offered through local partners to help tenants with no access to the internet submit the applications online.
- Review of upcoming Universal Basic Income pilot project to be rolled out through the Yolo County CalWORKs Housing and Supportive Services (HSP) program. CalWORKs is currently searching for partners to assist in supplying funding in order to provide a universal basic income to thirty CalWORKs HSP families, in order to raise them above the poverty line for a period of two years, while continuing to provide the full amount of HSP supportive services. Outcomes and measures will be tracked throughout the project. It's unknown at this time how the thirty families will be selected.
 - This project is based on a pilot project conducted in Stockton, CA. Article on Stockton's program: <https://www.npr.org/2021/03/04/973653719/california-program-giving-500-no-strings-attached-stipends-pays-off-study-finds>.
