Yolo County Juvenile Detention Facility OPEN HOUSE

Woodland, CA.- Yolo County Chief Probation Officer Don Meyer invites members of the community, and particularly parents of school-aged children, to the first annual Open House at the Yolo County Juvenile Detention Facility. On February 9, 2009 from 5:30p.m.-7:30p.m., the Juvenile Detention Facility staff, Yolo County Office of Education school staff and over 12 volunteer groups will be represented on site to present information about what they do to rehabilitate the Youth in their care. There will be guided tours of the state of the art Juvenile Detention Facility as well as information about the rehabilitative programs provided to youth.

This event is free and open to the public. The Open House will take place at the Yolo County Juvenile Detention Facility located at 2880 East Gibson Road on the corner of East Gibson Road and County Road 102 in Woodland, CA. Check in for tours will begin at 5:00p.m in the Juvenile Detention Facility lobby.
