6. Yolo County Report: District 4 Supervisor, Jim Provenza Provenza
The Supervisor will provide the latest information on County issues and activities.
7. Yard Trimming Collection Schedule Change Lawyer
The Committee will briefly discuss the results of this Summer's vote by the property owners within the Willowbank County Service Area. The property owners favored changing the schedule of yard trimming pile collections (claw pickups) from the current 12 collections per year (once per month) to 15 collections per year by adding 3 collections of per year during leaf fall season (November, December & January). The County-run ballot process of property owners had a 71% response rate, with 53% favoring the increase (44 to 39). Supervisor Jim Provenza has concluded that the vote was a reliable illustration of WCSA desire. The County will be communicating the results shortly. The communication will include the details of how the change in our collection schedule will be implemented. The County Supervisors are expected to have a consent-calendar vote on the change later this month.
8. Yard Trimming Piles Placement Enforcement Lawyer
Discussions will cover how the Committee and community can increase compliance with existing rules on when and where yard trimming piles can be placed in our streets for collection by the claw. Discussion will include bike path rules and enforcement process challenges. Ideas generated from these discussions will be utilized to initiate implementation towards future compliance.
