

RECYCLING

Yolo County Esparto Convenience Center

RECYCLE MORE and Trash Less.

Recycling
A to Z
at the Esparto
Convenience
Center

- Aluminum cans
- Batteries (alkaline)
- Glass beverage containers
- Hydraulic oil
- Newspaper
- Oil
- Oil filters
- Paper (mixed)
- Steel cans
- Tin cans
- Transmission fluid & oil

Hazardous Waste and other material not accepted at this center may be taken to the Yolo County Central Landfill. For more information call:

(530) 666-8729.

27075 CR 19A
Esparto, CA
95627

GLASS

- All beverage & food containers, labels okay
- All colors, lids removed
- Rinsed & empty

Please No window glass, mirrors, drinking glasses, ceramics, light bulbs, or fluorescent tubes.

MIXED PAPER

- Newspaper
- Magazines, catalogs & glossy paper
- Brown Paper bags
- Paper packaging
- Junk mail
- Phone books
- All color paper
- Envelopes with & without windows
- Tag board (cereal boxes & shoe boxes)

No hardcover books, paper tissues or paper towels, No paper with plastic coatings, paper with food on it, waxed or foil lined paper or tyvek (non-tearing) envelopes.

Hardcover books can be donated to Goodwill or Reuse centers.

CALIFORNIA REFUND VALUE (CRV)

is the cash refund you will earn when you recycle your empty CRV bottles and cans.

Take CRV containers to a recycling center within Yolo County and receive the cash refund.

PLASTICS

Plastic beverage or food containers # 1-7 accepted.

- Please No plastic bags, Styrofoam, or plastic film / wrap.

RECYCLE PLASTIC BAGS at grocery stores and large retailers.

METALS

- Tin & Steel cans
- Aluminum cans
- Loose metal lids

RECYCLING CAN SAVE YOU MONEY AT HOME OR AT YOUR BUSINESS.

The more you recycle the less trash you have to dispose. Recycling helps the environment and your wallet!

